MARION, CRITTENDEN COUNTY, KENTUCKY, MAY 16, 1901.

NO 49

THE PRIMARY.

Resulted in Nomination of Pogue for Representative.

The primary to select a Demoeratic nominee for State Representative was held Saturday. Marion F. Pogue, of Frances, is the nomines. Six good men were in the race, and up to the day of the primazy it was impossible to tell who was in the lead. About sixteen hundred votes were polled in the two counties.

Pogue's majority, according to the reports received from all the precincts is twelve. Mr. Bennett was the second man in the race. In this county 959 votes were polled. Pogue carried the county by a majerity of 113 votes. Bennett carried Livingston county over Pogue by a majority of 104. The total vote in that county was 654. The unsuccessful candidates cheer fully bow to the decision of the people and perfect harmony prevails. Chairman Maxwell, of the Democratic committee of this county, and Chairman Reed, of Livingston county, will make the official count at Salem today, and issue the certificate of nomination to the successful candidate.
